

Kitchen Stewards

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

The University Club of Western Australia is now accepting expressions of interest for Kitchen Stewards to join the busy stewarding team, responsible for the Club's two kitchens.

General duties will include washing dishes, maintaining high levels of cleanliness and hygiene of the kitchen, and assisting the Chefs as required.

Previous experience in a similar role will be well regarded. Training is provided, however, knowledge of kitchen hygiene and workplace safety will be an asset. You must be able to multi-task and work quickly in a busy environment.

Flexible availability is essential; successful applicants must be able to work 25+ hours per week.

The Club offers excellent working conditions and state of the art facilities. Benefits include uniforms, meals on duty, and fantastic career advancement and training. This position is paid in accordance with Award rates.

The University Club is located on the heritage-listed grounds of The University of Western Australia. It has over 4500 members and a café, restaurant and 12 function rooms. The Club is operational six days per week, closed for 2 weeks over Christmas and New Years, and closed public holidays and most Sundays.

Applicants must have the right to work in Australia.
